REVeries

*This is the light I crave
the first light
the new creation light
that falls softly
on all it touches
the light that does not invade but leaves some spaces
in shadow waiting their own time to be seen*

*This is the light I crave
the first light
the waking light
the renewing light
the touch of creative love that warms but does not blister
this is the light I crave*

wilma gayle waddell

I am reading this poem at retreats in which we focus on emerging into greater light at this time of year. And how many of us have been feeling, these recent weeks, especially during the unseasonably cold days, exactly like this about the lengthening light? We are encouraged, enlivened. The light literally brings us life — photosynthesis creates nourishment for our very bodies.

The light is external — it comes because earth's axis tilts — but perhaps it seems to come as a blessing. The light is internal as well, and that, well, that is more complicated. Maybe your internal light is emerging and growing with the lengthening days and maybe it isn't. We may not have much more control over our internal light than over the sun's. But we can choose to allow to shine whatever light is in us, however little it may be. And we can choose to search out the light in each other, and be grateful for it.

Blessings of light and peace,

—Karen Foley

NEW ASSOCIATE MINISTER FOR PASTORAL CARE ANNOUNCED

The Reverend Margaret (Margie) King Saphier has agreed to become our new part-time Associate Minister for Pastoral Care, filling the position being vacated by Karen Foley. Karen and her husband are moving to Maine, where she will explore venues for her ministry. Margie makes her home in Carlisle, was graduated from Russell Sage College with a B.S. in Nursing in 1967, and from Andover Newton Theological School with a Master of Divinity in 2000. She was ordained the same year by the First Religious Society of Carlisle. She currently serves as the Affiliate Minister at the United First Parish in Quincy, and has significant experience as a Hospice Nurse. We are thrilled to find someone of this caliber and experience to continue the strong Pastoral Care Ministry Karen has developed. Margie will begin sometime after July 1.

REMINDER: FLEA MARKET/RECYCLE SALE — APRIL 1

Don't forget to donate items to and attend the WPA Flea Market/Recycle Sale, which will take place on April 1, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., rain or shine. Gently used furniture, antiques, kitchen stuff, artwork, jewelry and clean toys are all welcome. No books, magazines, clothing, plants or sports equipment can be accepted. Please drop off your items at the church the day before the sale. Call Pat Kane at 978-369-8418 if you want to volunteer at this enjoyable fund raiser.

FIRST PARISH AND THE FAITH QUILTS PROJECT

The Faith Quilts Project is a three-year initiative bringing together faith groups, artists and quilters to collaborate on quilts that explore their faith paths and reach out to the wider world. On April 6, a four-day exhibition of 60 Faith Quilts will open at the Cyclorama at the Boston Center for the Arts. One of these quilts will be First Parish's own quilt — exploring our commitment to social action. Many of the children in the RE program have contributed to the quilt by making fabric pieces in the shape of their hands, which illustrate their "hands that are ready to serve." For more information, e-mail Merill Comeau at mlcomeau@verizon.net or visit the Faith Quilts Project website, faithquilts.org.

FIFTH ANNUAL NICK RESSLER MEMORIAL BLOOD DRIVE

Are you looking for a way to put the First Parish benediction into practice? Why not consider donating blood during the annual Nick Ressler Memorial Blood Drive on Saturday, April 8. Nick, a vibrant member of the First Parish community, was 14 when he died of cancer in 2001. Over 300 blood donors helped Nick during his illness, and now others need the same help. Mass General's bloodmobile will be at First Parish on Saturday, April 8, from 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. If you are 17 years old, you may be eligible to donate. Call Pam Ressler (978-369-0869) or Cindy Tenner (978-371-0306) for an appointment to donate, or to ask questions.

MAUNDY THURSDAY, APRIL 13

First Parish's annual observance of "The Last Supper" is on Maundy Thursday, prior to Easter Sunday. A service of Communion in the Sanctuary at 6:30 p.m. is followed by the traditional Chowder Supper in the Parish Hall. Tickets for the Chowder Supper are $10, and will be available at coffee hours and in the church office prior to the dinner. (Seating is limited and tickets must be purchased prior to the event.) Caroline McCloy will be making the traditional fish chowder that day and will need help in the kitchen. Please contact her at 978-369-9602, ext. 421, or FPTavern@aol.com.

JOIN THE ANNUAL FIRST PARISH PASSOVER SEDER

Saturday, April 15, at 5 p.m., is the date for the annual Seder at First Parish, a very special experience for everyone who participates. Together we prepare a kosher-style dinner and listen to the story of Passover (a shortened child-friendly version of the Haggadah).

Pastoral Care News

Learn the art of Parish Visiting. The Parish Visitors, a group of caring individuals who visit regularly with some of our older members and friends, meet monthly with me for reflection and mutual support and supervision. It is a monthly “meeting” to which I look forward with delight because they are a wonderful group of people, and the conversation is always engaging and thought-provoking. The Visitors report that their visits feel less like “visits” that they “give” someone and more like developing friendships. Which says a lot about the quality of their presence in these relationships.

Most of the Visitors have been doing this for some time and received training before I arrived at First Parish. As we now have a couple of new Parish Visitors, I will give a training session on listening, presence and visiting issues. Current Visitors are invited to participate in this as a “refresher” course. If you’ve thought about joining our Parish Visitors, either now or sometime in the future, or even if you visit someone in your own life and some learning may be of value to you, I invite you to this training on Saturday, April 8, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Please call the church office (978-369-9602) if you plan to attend so I can have enough handouts and snacks on hand.

“Questioning Faith” — We all do it at some time. Come see and discuss this video on Tuesday, April 11, 7 to 9 p.m. It was created by a seminary student who found his faith shaken when a friend died of AIDS. He interviewed others who experienced losses or anticipated their own deaths, to learn what sustained them in their time of deep need. I found this video powerful and moving.

Good-bye but Hello. Elsewhere in this Meetinghouse News, you’ll see Gary Smith’s announcement that the Reverend Margie King Saphier will be joining the staff in my place this summer. Margie is a friend and very well-respected colleague with solid experience in pastoral care. I look forward to welcoming her here as she visits this spring with some of the groups with whom I have been working. It will be hard to leave you, yes, but I feel blessed to be able to do so with Margie entering among you.

Blessings in this blooming (soon) season,

— Karen Lewis Foley

AFFINITY GROUPS

Are you interested in participating in a Painting Group? We now have a contact person for this group. A few more people are needed to start a creative writing group that would meet on a weekday evening or on the weekend. The Walking Group sign-up gets larger, but a contact person is still needed. Are you interested? Sign up for the adult Bicycle Group with Peggy Walker, the Kayaking Group with Karen Kashian or French Conversation with Stephanie Chiha. The Jewelry Group meets on April 24, at 7 p.m. at First Parish and the Needleworkers Group, on Sunday, April 9, from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Tavern Room.

Stop by the Affinity Groups table at the coffee hours on Sunday, April 9. This will be the last time that the table will be available this church year. However, you can still contact Judy Dembsey at home, 978-263-3272 or dembsey@surfglobal.net.

Money Matters

As spring arrives, we are two thirds of the way through the fiscal year. In February, we collected $64.1K in subscription income, bringing the fiscal year total to $693.5K. This represents 76 percent of our budget. Please continue to make contributions toward your pledge. This will help us reach our year-end goal of $907.9K, which was planned for based on your pledges. On the expense side, we continue to be on track as our YTD expenses through February represent 64 percent of total budgeted expenses for the year. Although in total we have slightly lower spending YTD than expected at this time, in some areas of the facility and administrative accounts we are working quite hard to stay within budget. At this time, we do not expect any areas to run over budget.

Other financial highlights:

You will receive pledge statements in April with your pledge and contribution amounts for the first 9 months of the pledge year. Please review this carefully and contact Peg Gallo or me if you have any questions.

The audit of our 2005 financials is almost complete. Tim Jacoby and I will be meeting with the auditors in late March, and the audited financials should be finalized thereafter.

The staff has begun putting together the budget for FY ’07. A preliminary version was presented to the Standing Committee in February. We will be able to update this version when the pledge campaign is complete. Your pledges typically represent over 70 percent of the budgeted income, so pledges play a very important role in determining how much money we can spend on our programs, staffing, facilities, UUA contributions, etc.

— Lisa Cole, Business Manager

FROM THE COLLECTOR

For those who fulfill pledges by donations of appreciated stock, our brokerage information has changed. Please contact Peg Gallo at 979-369-9602 for new instructions. Thank you.

AN INVITATION TO AN ORDINATION

Three years ago, I left First Parish with your blessings to complete my education for the ministry. As I made my exit, Gary Smith reminded me that the children and families of First Parish had already ordained me with their love and trust. My education would only be a rounding out of what I had already learned from you. He was right. In the Unitarian Universalist tradition, only our congregations have the authority to ordain our ministers. It is an awesome honor for me to ask you, the members of this church, to officially ordain me on May 7, as you have already done in your hearts.

With much gratitude,

—Diane Rollert

The congregation is invited to the ordination of Diane Olenick Rollert
into the Unitarian Universalist Ministry
at First Parish in Concord,
Sunday, May 7, 2006, at 4:00 p.m.
Reception to follow in the Parish Hall.

CAN YOU HELP?

Would you like to help make this a special day for Diane? We are organizing a reception for the day of her ordination. We welcome contributions of flowers and food for the table, and we need volunteers to help at the occasion. Donations may be offered to defray expenses. If you can provide sandwiches or goodies and/or if you can volunteer, please contact Caroline McCloy at 978-371-1039 or FPTavern@aol.com. Thank you!

—The Ordination Committee: Merill Comeau, Cynthia Ellis, Caroline McCloy and Mary-Wren vanderWilden.

MUSings

Be sure to give the rest its full value. The silence is as important as the sound.

I regularly say this to the choir as we rehearse together. Musicians focus so much on playing or singing the right notes, concentrating on correctly producing the sound that composers indicate through the written music.

But a musical score also has rests telling us to be silent, and composers use this silence as effectively as they use sound to create their music. Often in our eagerness to get to the next note or chord singers shortchange the rests, and we have to practice giving those moments of silence their full value. Times of silence indicated by rests are just as important as the times of sound indicated by the notes. There are some rhythms that simply can't happen without rest: What would the opening of Beethoven's 5th symphony be without that important eighth rest of silence before the "da-da-da-daah?"

This is all obvious when one is preparing a musical score. Why is it so hard to acknowledge and incorporate rest and silence into the symphony of our day-to-day life? During this season of Lent I am reading a book that was given to me at Christmas, Sabbath: Finding Rest, Renewal and Delight in our Busy Lives, by Wayne Muller. Muller's book approaches the concept of Sabbath (from the Hebrew shabbath, or "rest") from a variety of religious traditions and cultural perspectives. And he suggests simple practices that help create Sabbath time in the midst of our lives, whether it is just a few minutes, a few breaths, or a whole day of rest and renewal. As I read, I am exploring some of these practices and learning to appreciate and develop the Sabbath practices I have already incorporated into my life's rhythm, but not really acknowledged as such. I recommend this slim volume to anyone who would like to make more space in their lives for rest and renewal.

"Give the rest its full value. The silence is as important as the sound." May we all hear and heed these words as we sing the song of life.

Blessings,

—Beth Norton

Music Notes

VOICE AND PIANO RECITAL

On Sunday, April 2, at 4 p.m., Larry Gall, baritone, and Eric Huenneke, pianist, will present selections of piano music by Brahms, Mozart and Chopin. The program will include songs of travel and love by Brahms, Fauré, Schumann and Vaughn-Williams. The performance will be held in the Sanctuary. The recital is open to the public as well as to First Parish members. A suggested donation of $15 will benefit the organ fund.

DUST OFF THOSE "MESSIAH" SCORES! EASTER IS COMING!

Singers from the congregation are invited to come to the choir loft during the final hymn on Easter Sunday, April 16, and join the choir in our traditional Easter benediction response, G. F. Handel's Hallelujah Chorus. If you have a copy of the Messiah, please bring it with you. If not, there will be some extra music available, and choir members are always willing to share. Even if you don't wish to make the climb to the balcony, feel free to join in this joyous chorus on Easter morning.

Standing Committee

Minutes from all Standing Committee (SC) meetings are available on the First Parish website and are also posted on the church bulletin board as soon as they are approved. At the March 13 meeting, the SC unanimously approved a new vision statement to be incorporated into our Policy Governance. The SC will use this Ends Statement to formulate our annual goals.

NEW VISION STATEMENT

"First Parish in Concord is an open, diverse and inclusive Unitarian Universalist church that supports each person's spiritual journey, as they strive to:

Go out into the world in peace,
Have courage,
Hold onto what is good.
Return to no person evil for evil.
Strengthen the fainthearted,
Support the weak,
Help the suffering,
Honor all beings.

These words, our benediction, come to life when we actively promote spiritual growth and nourishment through connecting, reflecting, praying, singing, listening, acting and giving.

The people of First Parish:

Connect through worship services, small group ministry, and community events. An important part of our community is our commitment to value our children's spiritual development in religious education, social action projects and music;

Reflect through child and adult religious education and in weekly services;

Pray together in worship and in meditation;

Sing in worship, in choirs, in concerts and shows;

Listen to each other, to sermons, to their inner calling;

Act to improve the world through social justice programs;

Give within to sustain our community both spiritually and financially, and without to the larger community to bring love, peace and justice to the world."

REflections and RE News

Have you noticed? RE is going to look quite a bit different next year. The RE Council members and the RE staff have been working all year to bring several improvements to our RE Program.

For our youngest children (0-3 years), we are creating a mixed age classroom. This way siblings can often be together, and children socialize best in mixed aged settings.

For our 3's and 4's, we are using our "Story Time" curriculum as a precursor to SpiritPlay. We are choosing the best stories, based on parent volunteer feedback forms, and allowing children to explore them based on the Montessori model.

We are combining our Kindergartners and First Graders and expanding the SpiritPlay program we started this year. We have heard very positive comments from teachers, parents and kids with regard to this Montessori approach toward learning and exploring spiritual stories.

Workshop Rotation is becoming a reality through the dedication of over 40 caring adults. We are close to completing the curriculum for next year's RE program and are about to start decorating the room space. Please call me or Allison Aley if you would like to get involved in this exciting work. Terrific people are coming forward with their amazing talents and it has been a pleasure working with so many of you.

We are formalizing a rotating "curriculum" for our 6th and 7th-8th Grade youth groups. These groups are primarily social and meet on Sundays in the late afternoon. Adults especially like leading these groups because they are a great group of kids and the adult is still able to participate in worship on Sunday mornings.

For 7th graders, we are embracing Claudia Nimar's concept of the "Young Activist" and bringing it into this grade level's Sunday morning curriculum. This is a hands-on program that enables our kids to put their faith in action.

Neighboring Faiths will be in the second semester for 7th graders. We have an interesting itinerary planned for both kids and leaders. Often we hear adults who lead Neighboring Faiths say that they learn much themselves about the different religious traditions.

8th Graders will be bringing their interpretation of GodSpell into worship for next year. These youth will explore the importance of Jesus' message in the world through drama, dance and social action. Their work will culminate in a youth-led worship service on December 3.

Our Whole Lives (OWL) will continue next year, but with a slightly shorter schedule. We hear you — your kids are busy, but we all want them knowledgeable and safe as they move into adulthood.

Coming of Age (COA) will also be a bit less time-consuming, but will still maintain the essential elements of the exploratory process of defining who we are as spiritual beings.

PARENTING SUPPORT

Sometimes parenting can be difficult. There are normal ups and downs with raising children and teens. But sometimes it can be more. Supporting a child with mental illness can be particularly challenging because of its chronic nature. It can be draining for parents who are trying to keep it all together. If you are going through a difficult period with your child and are in need of some support yourself, either through our Pastoral Care program or from other parents who have already gone through something similar, please give Karen Foley or me a call. All information will be kept confidential.

Also, if you are a parent who has been through difficulties of this nature and would like to be a resource for other parents who are currently struggling with this issue, let Karen Foley or me know. Depression and mental illness are difficult to talk about, but they are serious realities many of us face. First Parish wants to be there for families who are facing this particular challenge.

Senior Youth News

The youth have been talking about ways to bring more spirituality into the Youth Group. When we talked about bringing in various speakers, the youth realized that they could do a good job leading themselves. So three seniors will be leading the Youth Group on a "spiritual journey" one Sunday a month until the end of our year. In March we explored fears/passions and evils/virtues and how we define our spirituality, all together while contemplating our individual candles. We are excited to see how the other two seniors will lead their sessions. It is truly a joy to see our senior youth blossom into inspirational leaders.

Our April YRUU calendar looks like this:

Apr. 2 Youth Service at 9:00 and 11:00

No YRUU at night

Apr. 9 Spiritual Journey with the seniors

Apr. 16 No YRUU – public school vacation

Apr. 23 Hike on the Squaw Sachem Trail

Apr. 30 What really matters? — speaker

The YAC is getting ready to go on retreat into Boston, where we will spend the night at the First and Second Church in the Back Bay. It will be a good opportunity to think about the 2006-2007 year. We are working on getting more youth involved; and if you have any ideas, then please let Mary-Wren or a Youth Leader know.

Registration for Religious Education will take place on April 2 and April 9. We will have a table set up to register youth and answer any questions you might have. It is important that you register youth, even if they will only participate intermittently, so that we have critical information like allergies and emergency phone numbers on file. This year there is No Registration Fee for YRUU. The greater program costs are paid for by the annual pledges of our generous congregation during the Annual Campaign.

April can be the calm before the storm for youth. May and June are crazy with concerts, proms, graduation parties, spring sports, etc. It is my hope that First Parish continues to be an oasis of peace and a welcoming place for our youth in these busy times.

Mirrors of Masculinity — Modern life often makes it difficult for men to remain in touch with their deeper feelings — whether it be their innate joy, zaniness, tender loving or repressed feelings of anger, anguish, shame, or the fear of being "found out." Between work, family and everyday life, men are finding it rare to have the time for sharing the company of other men and what they feel deeply for and value in their lives. Consciously placing ourselves in the company of other men who are looking at life's larger pictures, and asking important questions about who we are as men, is the framework for this six-week course. As we combine discussion, poetry, and interactive exercises with our connecting to Spirit, each other and nature we will create a caldron for comraderie, change and consciousness.

Blasé Provitola and Ron Kearns have each been involved in working with groups of men for over a decade. They are the founders of Menswork Inc., a nonprofit organization whose purpose includes "birthing the male Spirit." They have been co-facilitators at Rowe Conference Center for the Men's Wisdom Council for the last twelve years and developed a course for incarcerated men named "menswork," which they lead in a number of area prisons.

Tuesdays: 4/3-5/8      7:30–9:30 p.m.      $175

In addition to the six evening classes at the center there will be an all-day Saturday gathering on May 6, in the gorgeous rural setting of Harvard.

American Jezebel: The Uncommon Life of Anne Hutchinson, the Woman Who Defied the Puritans — As a follow-up to the First Parish Women's Book Group's reading of American Jezebel, author Eve LaPlante will join the wider community in a discussion of the life of the remarkable and polarizing Anne Hutchinson. LaPlante, one of Hutchinson's direct descendents, offers both balance and perspective to Hutchinson's story. The seeds of the American struggle for women's and human rights can be found in the story of this one woman's courageous life. American Jezebel illuminates the origins of our modern concepts of religious freedom, equal rights and free speech, and showcases an extraordinary woman whose achievements are astonishing by the standards of any era.

Thursday, 4/6      7:30–9:00 p.m.

How Shall I Pray? A Weekend Retreat — Whether you have a regular prayer practice, or would like to pray but aren't sure how to begin, or even, as many say, "I don't know how to pray," we all struggle at times with our concept or practice of prayer. This retreat, facilitated by Karen Lewis Foley, will start with your prayer life or lack thereof, and your thoughts or concerns about praying, and will introduce some ways of praying. It will also offer time for individual practice, as well as support and encouragement. The retreat will be held at Our Lady of Hope House of Prayer, in New Ipswich, New Hampshire.

Friday-Sunday, 4/21-23 (arrival after 4 p.m. Friday, departure after Sunday noon meal); $175 (includes nonrefundable $25 deposit)
