FIRST PARISH MEETING HOUSE MADE NEW!

So many things are about to happen, thanks to your generous support of our Capital Campaign. Please watch this space and the weekly Sunday News for updates on construction and renovation at First Parish. By the time you receive this newsletter, the carpet will have been removed from the Sanctuary so that we can assess how the acoustics can be improved for music and for the spoken word. You will have a chance over the next few weeks to give us your feedback. Additionally, some of the offices in the main building, particularly those of the religious education staff, will be moved into the Parlor throughout the summer. A dumpster will be parked in the side parking lot, making parking even more restricted.

At the end of June, demolition will commence in the religious education wing, and renovations will begin in the space below the Sanctuary — new bathrooms, kitchen improvements, newly reconfigured office space. This will eliminate restrooms for the whole summer in the main building. Not good for Sunday morning. We'll only have one exit in the Sanctuary this summer. Not good for Sunday morning. So we are moving to the new and beautiful Kerem Shalom on Elm Street for our summer Sunday worship, beginning June 15. We have terrific preachers and music lined up for each Sunday at 10:00 a.m.

Watch for regular updates. Contact us with concerns and questions. Let us know if you think there's anything you can do to help us during this time. Keep in mind — a new adequate elevator, new restrooms, handicap accessible buildings, some offices moved back to the church from the Wright Tavern, more space for multipurpose use. It will be terrific!

INSTRUCTIONS FOR LIVING A LIFE:

Pay attention.
Be astonished.
Tell about it.

REVeries

In the next two months, you will begin to see changes at First Parish as the staff prepare for the building project. One of the obvious changes will happen on May 20, when some of the staff will move out of their offices to new locations within First Parish. Also summer services, which begin Sunday, June 15, will be held at Temple Kerem Shalom in Concord and will go into the fall.

Although change is always occurring around us, it is usually subtle, so we barely notice it. But dramatic change is rarely easy. This coming year (2008 to 2009), life at First Parish will be different as we negotiate the challenges of ongoing construction. Changes

Parish Notes

SUNDAY FLOWERS

If you would like to provide the Sunday flowers for a memorial or for a special occasion, please leave your name in the office to arrange a date.

DO YOU HAVE MATERIALS IN THE FIRST PARISH ARCHIVES?

Before the church renovation begins, all materials in the First Parish Archives are being transferred to our traditional archival storage in Special Collections at the Concord Public Library. If you or your committee have something in the church archives that you would rather keep, please contact Enid Boasberg at harpplayer@comcast.net or Winslow Pettingell at LondonSW11@aol.com.

CLIP COUPONS FOR OPEN TABLE

Your neighbors who come to Open Table could use your help. They receive help with weekly groceries, but they do not receive any cleaning products, drugstore items or pet supplies. While you are clipping coupons from the Sunday paper or from drugstore inserts, please save any from these three categories that you do not need and bring them to church. You will find one box in the coatroom and another as you enter the RE wing. Thanks for your help!

FIRST PARISH QUILT NOTE CARDS

Judy Dembsey has kindly consented to let us put her World Systems of Beliefs quilt on a 4"x 6" note card. The front features a color photo of the quilt, and the back has an explanation of the symbols. A package of eight cards (blank inside) with envelopes is $10.00. All proceeds go to the church's operating budget. Look for the cards at coffee hours or contact Sue Beck, sbeck345@comcast.net or 978-369-8445, to place an order.

A NEW TWIST ON FIRST PARISH HISTORY

There's a new book out, that should be of interest to everyone interested in the history of Concord and/or First Parish in Concord. The author, Thomas Taylor, is a descendent of both of the first ministers of Concord — Rev. John Jones and Rev. Peter Bulkeley. Thom has recently done some new researching on his own, and has found a new interpretation of the relationship between these two men, which is different from our traditional history as we know it. The title of the book is From Bulkeley to Bulkley to Buckley. It is basically a genealogy of the Bulkeley family, but the first two chapters contain Thom's explanation of his findings. For more information, contact Marian Wheeler at 978-369-2435 or madge17@aol.com.

THANKS FOR A GREAT FLEA MARKET!

Many people contributed items and their time to make this year's flea market another success, and the Women's Parish Association extends its gratitude to each and every one. Special thanks go to Pat Kane, chair of the event, Roselyn Romberg, Francene Amari-Faulkner, Mary King, Rhoda Miller, Helen Stoddard, Dian Pekin, Jonathan Keleher, Hayle Wesolowski, Doug Baker and all the sextons. This is a great community effort, raises funds, and recycles items that would end up in landfills. Well done, everybody!

THANK YOU

On April 9, a team of eight of First Parish's finest cooks filled the Caring Connection freezer with tasty treats. Rhoda Miller and Carolyn Shohet headed the culinary team that included Enid Boasberg, Polly Peterson, Helen Stoddard, Jean Hill, Bev Bringle and Jane Johnson. Thanks to all for providing this service.

Money Matters

It is the time of year when we on the staff split our time between this (fiscal) year and the next (fiscal) year. We are trying to anticipate how this year will end. The key to our ending the year positively is to continue to receive your pledge dollars for this fiscal year. The key to our being able to plan for next year is that we receive your pledge for next year. If you have already made your pledge for next year, we thank you. As of this writing, however, we have over 130 pledge units from whom we have not yet heard about next year's pledge. Budget planning for next year is very difficult when so many possible pledges remain outstanding. If you have not yet pledged, please do so as soon as possible. Thank you very much.

Intern Reflections

I am writing this reflection a few days before I preach my last sermon and just a few weeks before I leave First Parish in Concord for First Church in Cincinnati. You may know that when I leave here I will join Rev. Sharon Dittmar, a former First Parish intern, at her church in Cincinnati. I have talked with many of you about the comings and goings of interns over the years; it is a difficult task for a church to take on the training of a new generation of ministers. We come to you, learn and serve for a few months, and then leave just as you are getting used to us and we are connecting with the community. It is hard to say good-bye. I think this commitment to the future of Unitarian Universalism, despite the almost constant good-byes you must bear as a congregation, is incredible. I thank you for being willing to continue that commitment year after year, with intern after intern. It has been a joy to work with and learn from this congregation — from you.

I also know that my going and the next intern's arrival will not be the biggest change the congregation will experience in the coming year. Comings and goings will be present in our building, in our worship, and in our community. I encourage you to be as kind and flexible with each other as you have been with me. Next year will be a learning year, not just for the intern, but for all congregants in how to be together as community in the midst of change. If we think of ourselves as students, practicing our worship and learning together, we may find that there is a patience and resilience available to us that we never imagined.

—Becky Johnson

Pastoral Care News

In Pocketful of Miracles, Joan Borysenko writes, "The beauty of May draws us out of hibernation into a natural mindfulness of the blessing and abundance of nature. Gratitude and mindfulness are intimately related, for as we practice gratitude we come more aware, more present. We wake up."

There are many ways to "wake up." Life provides us with endless opportunities, from the surprise of the beauty of nature to the surprise that our sense of control is an illusion. We learn this latter lesson over and over again, through illness, death of a loved one, loss of a job, divorce, the birth of a child, and the list goes on. We can also "wake up" in the giving and receiving of pastoral care. In this great dance of giving and receiving we learn we are one. We also learn, in the full acknowledgment of our interdependency, what our unique gifts are, so we can bring them to others.

So I thank everyone who filled out the Pastoral Care Survey form. I will be contacting each of you by e-mail or telephone. I look forward to working with you to expand the dance of giving and receiving at First Parish.

When we are facing long-term illness or convalescence and need assistance for an extended period of time, there is a new resource for Concord/Carlisle residents. It is the Concord Carlisle Angels, which is a network of volunteers who are ready and able to help you and your family in a crisis. If you would like to be a volunteer, go to the website to register. When a call for help comes, you volunteer, if you are available. Because there are many volunteers, you don't need to feel guilty if you are not available. Concord Carlisle Angels help both families and individuals experiencing short-term disability or long-term illness by:

- Preparing and delivering meals
- Running errands
- Provide rides to and from medical appointments
- Driving children to activities
- Helping children with homework
- And more!

If you are a Concord or Carlisle resident who needs an angel in your life right now, or know someone who might, please e-mail angels@concordcarlisleangels.org. The towns of Wayland and Northborough have established "angels" that are very successful.

In faith,

in the configuration of space, whether in our home or in First Parish, will change how we relate to one another. So it is also important for us to remember what it means to belong to a faith community. People often come to church looking for a sense of community, and to deepen their sense of meaning and faith and to be able to work for social justice. In this sense, this coming year will be no different from past years.

But change invites us to look at the meaning of a faith community. Scott F. Peck says in The Different Drum: Community Making and Peace, “We all yearn for a sense of community, because to one degree or another, we are all lonely. One of the lessons of life is we can never be whole in and of ourselves. We are called to individuation within the context of interdependence.” In order for our interdependence to remain strong and healthy, we need to keep the true spirit of community alive. The true spirit is peace and love.

My prayer for First Parish is that we use this time of transition to strengthen our community, to open our hearts and minds, and to love one another so we can approach the needs and obstacles as they arise with a spirit of abundance and goodwill.

In faith,

—Margie King Saphier

Standing Committee Information

The Standing Committee met on April 14. Look for the minutes online at Firstparish.org under church Life (you must log on), or look for them on the bulletin board in the downstairs hall. The next Standing Committee meeting will be Monday, May 12.

MUSings

There is music that reaches out to me as if the composer was in the room speaking to me through the centuries. This is true of a charming set of part-songs for choir and piano composed by Franz Joseph Haydn in 1794, when he was sixty-two. This was his first foray into the part-song genre, one that was designed for musical camaraderie and social singing more than public performance. I first encountered these songs as a graduate student and was immediately charmed.

Haydn composed the songs “lovingly ... in carefree hours, without commission.” In other words, for fun! The texts, which he selected himself, are simple and folk-like in character and convey a wide range of human experience. Some, such as Die Beredsamkeit (Eloquence) depict convivial social gatherings:

“Friends, water makes one mute: learn this from the fish.
But with wine, it is the opposite; learn this at our tables ...”

Others, such as the almost symphonic Danklied (Thanksgiving) are deeply spiritual texts set in a style reminiscent of Haydn’s major oratorio, The Creation, which was also composed during this period.

Singing these songs is much like playing in a string quartet. The part-songs are truly a “conversation among equals,” with sophisticated interplay between the voices. Die Harmonie in der Ehe (Harmonie in Marriage) contains real conversations, where the men and women interrupt one another as married couples often do.

The song in the group through which Haydn seems to speak most directly and personally is Der Greis (The Old Man): “Gone is all my strength, old and weak am I; very little refreshes me, only joking and wine ...” Perhaps this explains the prevalence of these themes in the other poems that he selected!

Haydn identified so strongly with Der Greis that he printed its opening measure on his calling card. The poem goes on to describe the inevitable, “Death knocks at my door,” and Haydn’s response: “Unafraid I open it for him. Heaven be praised! My life’s journey was a harmonious song.” These last lines are set in serenely beautiful four-part harmony.

As we practiced these songs over this winter, choir members wondered, “Why are we singing these secular songs in worship?”

What I have come to believe about these songs is that they are one very gifted musician’s musical celebration of life—from its most undignified moments to its most sublime. When we share these songs in worship on May 4, I hope that you will also hear Haydn speaking to you through the centuries about the joy and the pain of being human.

Blessings,

—Beth Norton

THOUGHTS ON SOCIAL ACTION

One significant role of SAC is to nurture new ideas, incubate them, and then support them as they grow beyond our boundaries. As we enter a phase of construction here at First Parish, we face potential confusion and distraction, but we as a strong community can come together to support one of our great successes, the Jericho Road Project. The Jericho Road Bike Ride will take place on Sunday, September 28, and SAC would like to invite all First Parish members to join in. First Parish staff and their families will be joining in, as in past years. My 9-year-old very successfully completed 10 miles last year and plans on trying for 20 miles come September. So, start biking, or contact Jericho Road (JerichoRoadProject.org) to volunteer, or get ready to sponsor a rider. We can build community and make a difference all at the same time! Please contact me with your causes and concerns at FBade@firstparish.org.

— Faith Bade
Social Action Associate

JERICHO ROAD PROJECT NEEDS DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

The Jericho Road Project is seeking a Director of Development to join us in strategic development planning, major gift development, annual giving campaigns, special events management and grants management and writing. A greater Concord area resident with a proven local development track record would be ideal. For more information on this position, please see the full job description at the Jericho Road website, jerichoroadproject.org.

PROJECT BREAD'S WALK FOR HUNGER

Don't forget Project Bread's Walk for Hunger Sunday, May 4. Help Project Bread feed the hungry in Massachusetts, especially during these tough economic times. Last year Project Bread funded emergency food programs, providing more than 42 million meals! Registration forms are available from Faith Bade at the church or through projectbread.org. Start on Boston Common and walk all 20 miles or a portion of it! Start a team. Make it happen.

Reflection and RE News

As I write this reflection, it is Sunday afternoon, just after experiencing the Youth Service in our Sanctuary. The youth chose the theme of shoes for their worship service. It is one of those themes where, at first, you might chuckle and think, "Oh to be young again ..." But there was nothing young about their worship service. It was spiritually grounding and deeply moving.

Personally, I actually do think a lot about shoes. I have saved the shoes of my children as they have grown. Sometimes I pause while dusting, and I cradle these old relics on the shelf. A shelf that is more like an altar than functional storage these days. It contains photos and trinkets of our years together as a new family, a young family, and now a transitional family where members are peeking around corners and looking down mysterious paths.

Today's youth service used shoes to convey some of life's most meaningful moments. They used shoes to symbolize growth, friendship, college and death. Each day we sit down, and for an instant we think, "What shoes shall I wear today?" You can tell a lot about people by the shoes they choose to wear. I especially like seeing your shoes and your children's shoes here on Sunday mornings. I cannot express enough how much it means to me to be on this journey with your family, a journey that nurtures our souls and breathes new life into each step we take together.

— Pam Howell

DRAMA IS BACK FOR OUR 8TH GRADERS NEXT FALL

We are so pleased to announce that our 8th Grade play is back again. Due to the construction, we needed to be creative about our RE programming, and it seemed a great time to bring back one of our former traditions for our youth.

We are extremely fortunate to have Tom and Sue Beck directing this adventure. We will be performing The Best Christmas Pageant Ever. This play is a delightful comedy that explores many of our UU principles. If your child is going to be an 8th grader next fall, please plan on joining Tom, Sue and Pam Howell for a gathering on Wednesday, May 21, at 7 p.m. at First Parish.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMUNITY

Centro Arte Para La Paz, El Salvador: $1,000, creating a culture of peace through the arts in a community that is the destination for the 2009 Youth Mission Trip.

Household Goods Recycling Ministry, Acton: $1,500, providing used household items for 3000 low-income families annually.

Restoration Project, Concord: $1,500, providing a sheltered workshop opportunity in Concord for people suffering mental illness and disorders.

UU Urban Ministries, Boston: $15,000, supporting a safe place for battered women at Renewal House, and youth programs including StandHigh/StandUnited.

Membership Corner

Great news! Abby White is going to be First Parish's new membership director. Abby and her husband have been coming to First Parish for two years and joined last year. They have two children in RE, kindergarten and pre-school. She has a masters in Education in School Psychology. She worked previously with at-risk youth — developing programs, teaching and counseling. She is currently copresident at the Barn Nursery School. I am leaving the job in good hands. Abby is excited about the challenge, has lots of great ideas and is looking forward to meeting you. Stop by the Newcomers table during coffee hour in the coming weeks and introduce yourself to her.

I will continue to work at First Parish this coming year as Transition Coordinator during construction. I've only moved two desks away. I also will still be staffing the Newcomers table on Sunday mornings with Abby and the rest of the Membership Committee. See you around!

PARLA L'ITALIANO?

Or wish you did? Maybe you are thinking about joining Jenny Rankin on her transcendentalist jaunt through Italy next year and wish you understood at least the basics of the language. Well, lucky you, because there is an Italian Conversation Affinity Group starting up. This will be a conversational group, geared more toward the beginner/intermediate speaker. Our topics will be social, cultural and practical, and centered around everyday life (i.e., we will not be reading Dante). This group will be meeting either in the early evenings or on weekends. If you are interested in joining us, please call Steph Chiha at 978-369-7569 or send her an e-mail at steph@pierre.com. Grazie!

UU HOSPITALITY AND SENSORY DELIGHTS IN WINE COUNTRY EXCURSIONS IN THE NAPA VALLEY

An hour north of San Francisco are the lush vineyards, world class wineries and picturesque small towns of the Napa and Sonoma valleys. Our fellowship invites all UUs and friends to share the beauty of our "home" through the UU Fellowship of North Bay's "Wine Country Excursions." We offer small, customized two-day tours of our valleys, which can include wine tastings, art galleries, museums, scenic trails and more. We provide private rooms with bath in the homes of our members and experienced guides to conduct tours in their cars. Tours are offered from April through October. Plan for two days of touring and a two- or three-night stay, with local transportation provided. Home hospitality without tours is also available. All proceeds help our fellowship grow and purchase property in this expensive real estate market. Contact Tom Wilson at 707-254-7443 or e-mail 2wilsons1dog@comcast.net for details.

Senior Youth News

Every year I find May to be a crazy roller coaster of a month. Emotionally, we are getting ready to say good-bye to our seniors and hello to the incoming freshmen. Calendars are so busy with proms, performances, sports and schoolwork. It is my hope that Youth Group does not feel like another thing on the calendar, but a place for renewal, peace and connections.

We had a very successful service trip to New Orleans over April vacation. Eleven youth and three chaperones did construction work helping to rebuild houses that were ruined by Hurricane Katrina. Thank you to Doug Hardy, Abby Russell Prior and Mark Russell Prior for chaperoning.

It's a busy May calendar for youth:

May 2-3 Leadership Retreat to Boston (all YAC members and youth interested in leadership invited)

May 4: 5:30–9:00 p.m. Pizza and Trip to Carlton-Willard (youth can earn community service credit)

May 11: 11:00 a.m. Senior Recognition Service

May 11: Snowballs

May 18: Ultimate Frisbee Championship game vs. Tri-Con

May 25: No YRUU – Memorial Day Weekend, Ferry Beach family retreat weekend

On May 4 we are so excited to be going back to the Carlton-Willard Village to lead worship with the seniors there. We will take the theme from our April 13 youth service, "shoes," and discuss it with the seniors.

At the 11:00 o'clock service on May 11, First Parish will recognize our high school seniors. It is a lovely ceremony where we send the seniors off into the world, but reassure them they will always have a home here at First Parish.

Spring fever has hit us and our moods have lifted. On the other hand, so many of the youth are facing good-byes and major changes. Through the joys and sorrows of life's journey, I would like the youth to know that First Parish will always give them strong roots and sturdy wings.

IN THE NEWS...

The Social Action Grants Committee has approved a grant of $5,000 to help fund the reconstruction of the Székelykeresztúr Unitarian Community House! Many thanks to Alane Wallis and the other members of the committee for their support for this important work.

The response to the call for First Parish families to host our 11 fall visitors from Székelykeresztúr has been wonderful. Twenty-five families have volunteered to open their homes. Our hosting subcommittee has juggled complex criteria to assign each visitor to stay with at least three families. For more details, see the First Parish Fall Visitors' Gallery at <http://firstparish.org/photos/gallery2/v/PCC-pics/2008Sept/>.

Sadly Rosie Nevins' grant application for the Bözödújfalú project was not approved, so our travel to Transylvania will not happen this summer. Stay tuned for future opportunities.

UPCOMING EVENTS

A Taste of Transylvania, Saturday, May 3, at 6:30 p.m.: Whether you've been part of our partnership for years or are curious about this "Transylvania thing," please join the Partner Church Committee, First Parish choir, Gary Smith and Beth Norton for a home-cooked Hungarian dinner and a special program of music, images and reminiscences from Transylvania. Learn about our 18-year relationship with this wonderful community, the myriad personal relationships it has spawned, and our future plans. Proceeds from the dinner (suggested donation $25) will go toward the fall visitors travel expenses and the renovations of the Székelykeresztúr Unitarian Community House. If you cannot attend but would like to make a contribution to help sponsor our visitors, please send your check to First Parish and mark it "Keresztúr visitors." Please purchase tickets ahead of time so we know how much food to prepare!

All-Parish Dance, Friday May 9: Look for details of the Rock 'n' Roll dance night on page 3 of this newsletter — proceeds to benefit the student our youth group sponsors and the fall visitors travel expenses. Tickets for both events are available at Sunday coffee hours and in the church office during the week.

Minden jót! (Best wishes!)

Lillian Anderson and Rodger Mattlage, PCC Cochairs
