REVeries

A few Sundays ago in church, I made the observation that we are all on the Membership Committee. The remark got a little bit of a laugh, but it also made the point that people will come to First Parish and stay only if they experience us as welcoming and friendly. So, yes, we are all on the Membership Committee at First Parish in Concord. It is up to each of us to be friendly and kind to one another.

Now that Rachel Baker has started her ministry in Las Vegas, I propose we do membership work somewhat differently at First Parish. As a large congregation, we will attract people who are interested in joining a large congregation. This means that they have different expectations about how quickly they will move into membership, and then into leadership within the congregation. Some people seek out a larger church precisely so that they can stay more anonymous than a smaller church allows.

My vision of a path to membership at First Parish features three things that are especially important as people find and join a large church such as ours. With the help of a newly forming Membership Committee, we would all work to:

1. Be friendlier on Sunday mornings—to new people and everyone else
2. Offer a clear way to join the church and become involved
3. Follow up with new members to help them become part of our church community

The good news is that we can all do Step 1 right away. If you see someone at church that you don't know, introduce yourself. It might be their first Sunday in church or they may have been attending First Parish for years. The point is that you don't know them yet. It makes us all feel good to have someone else take a sincere interest in us. Friendliness and kindness can be cultivated. See you in church.

Love, Howard

Rev. Howard N. Dana, Senior Minister, hdana@firstparish.org

Welcome, Rev. Mary Margaret Earl

Leading Sunday, October 11 – “Broken-Hearted and Open-Wide: Reflections on Race and Justice”

Rev. Mary Margaret Earl was named Executive Director and Senior Minister of the Unitarian Universalist Urban Ministry in December 2014. She spent the previous ten years at McAuley Ministries, a faith-based nonprofit in Providence, Rhode Island, that provided food, shelter and clothing to those who were homeless or at risk of becoming so. She is past president of the Board of the Rhode Island Coalition for the Homeless and served on the Pro Bono Advisory Board, which brings together large Providence law firms and underserved communities in need of free legal assistance.

MUUsings

This month, Beth Norton is featuring the following article by Susan Page, chair of the Arts Council.

The First Parish Arts Council serves to further the mission of First Parish through facilitating, promoting and coordinating a diverse arts ministry that inspires and celebrates creativity and connection.

Arts Council – A New Year

Saying Yes to the Arts – The Door Is Open

We are creative beings; and for many, our best selves are realized when we find a safe and welcoming space to develop that creativity, whether it is through singing, the visual arts, theater or dance.

While the glorious summer of 2015 fades, we feel autumn approaching, rich in color and brimming with activity. The arts at First Parish are part of the tapestry of activities that connect us and make First Parish a vibrant community. The process for facilitating arts events is more streamlined than ever, opening the door to increasing the number and breadth of new events.

Do we want more arts events at First Parish? YES

Will we provide guidance to get you started? YES

Are we open to new ideas? YES

Do we encourage events that reach beyond our Concord UU Community? YES

Your Ideas Matter

Do you have an arts event or group idea brewing? We urge you to share it with the council. Our mission includes helping you to clarify your plan and its alignment with the First Parish mission, and perhaps suggesting a partner for your event, like Social Action or the WPA. We are not administrators or producers. We will help you to chart your plan, provide you with logistical guidelines, and recommend resources to help make your vision a reality.

The door to the council is open. Come to a meeting and share your proposal. Together, we can make 2015-2016 a year of saying 'yes' to the arts at First Parish. Please contact Susan Page, srpage10@verizon.net, or Beth Norton, bnorton@firstparish.org.

REflections

"We are here, here together in this holy moment; and we're grateful for the winding road that brought us to this place."

—David Glasgow

During the Homecoming service, the choirs and congregation joined in singing "Here Together," by David Glasgow. Thankfully, I heard it during the rehearsal so I knew enough to bring tissues with me to worship. As I make my way among you, I am filled with gratitude for all that we bring to this community: questions and answers, memories and dreams, talents and areas of growth, and a full range of emotions.

On Saturday, September 12, Dawn Van Patten and I led an orientation for our Fall Term teachers. I was impressed by their thoughtfulness and commitment. We reviewed policies, some new logistics, and the curriculum. All of them understood what an honor it is to accompany children and youth in religious exploration.

Every Sunday there will be programming for children at First Parish. On Columbus Day weekend, instead of RE classes we will be creating a life-sized board game with grades 1 to 7. If your family is in town, I hope that your family will come. The rules of the game depend on your creative ideas and participation.

If you have any questions, concerns or bright ideas, or would like to introduce yourself, please email me.

See you in church!

Small Group Ministry 2015 – 2016

Facilitated Small Group Ministry (SGM) groups provide the opportunity for spiritual growth, and for people to get to know others on a deeper level. This year we will experiment with a variety of ways of doing Small Group Ministry.

Small Group Ministry experiences include:

1. Topic-specific, short-term SGM groups of 4 to 8 sessions. (“What I Believe,” “Finding Meaning and Purpose in Retirement,” “Dream Work,” etc.)
2. Cohort SGM groups for populations most likely to participate in a SGM group (i.e. newer members, those approaching retirement, seniors, parents, etc.). Topic-specific and cohort groups are usually limited to 8 to 12 participants. If you are interested in a group, sign - up quickly.
3. Drop-In SGM sessions on select Sundays following worship. Drop-in groups introduce folks to SGM and help connect those who can’t commit to a multi-session group. Drop-in SGM sessions are scheduled for Sundays September 20, October 4 and November 8, all from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

If you are interested in a group, sign - up quickly. If you have questions about Small Group Ministry, contact Rev. Marion Visel, mvisel@firstparish.org or 203/931-5239.

Social Action Community

This past month, we have continued to have discussions about social action at First

Parish in Concord. We have talked fondly about moments when we felt like we were making a positive difference in the world. We have dreamed about ways we might grow. We have imagined what our shared future looks like, and how we want to act as people of faith out in the world in the years to come.

It has been inspiring, to say the least. We are at a stage where we are asking big questions, without having any goal in mind other than imagining the future we want to create together. It is simultaneously beautiful and overwhelming.

We come with our individual ideas, and we share them with each other. We hear others' ideas and passions, and we let them inspire us as they will. Somewhere in this interchange of ideas and sharing of passions, we find a common passion. One that is not mine or yours, but shared between us. This is not his idea, or her project, but our shared dream. This shared dream makes us stronger. To me, this is the work of Unitarian Universalism in action.

If you haven't attended a SAC Listening Session yet, I recommend you attend one this month. If you cannot attend a listening session, get in touch with me as soon as possible and I will make sure someone from the SAC Council meets with you one-on-one. I hope you'll join us on this journey of discovery.

Bethany Lowe, Social Action Director and Youth Program Director

Denominational Affairs

As UUs, we are a force more powerful than one person or one congregation. Together we create tangible expressions of love, justice and peace. Attend a Denominational Affairs Committee (DAC) meeting the third Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Brooks Room. The next meeting is October 19.

DAC works to:

- study and reduce escalating inequality, which is the UUA Congregational Study/Action Issue (CSAI) the DAC is addressing.
- aspire to Dr. Cornel West's call that we face oppression with intellectual integrity.

For actions focused on this UUA CSAI, read Fred Van Deusen's article in this Meeting House News and for more information, contact Paula Vandever at VandeverP@aol.com.

Sunday Forum

The Sunday Forum is actively seeking new committee members. If you've attended any Forums in the past, learned something useful, and would like to help, please contact us. If you know people who have an expertise in a subject that others might like to hear about, that's great! But you can also help us by hosting speakers who've already approached us with an exciting topic and are waiting for someone to guide them through the message delivery process. Don't worry; we have instruction sheets that tell you what to do at each step. If this sounds interesting to you and you have a few hours a month to share with a fun-loving group, then please contact Sally Schloemann at sallymail@verizon.net or call 978-369-3416.

Standing Committee

At our September 13, 2015 meeting, Standing Committee members began developing goals for the coming year. This annual ritual helps us keep an eye on the future, and function in the most effective manner possible. Using sources such as our annual evaluation and input from Rev. Howard Dana and congregation members, the committee reviews where we have been, discusses what we want to accomplish, and identifies overarching goals for the coming year. We'll refine and approve these goals at our next meeting on Sunday, October 4, 2015, at 6:00 p.m.

At the September meeting we also identified Standing Committee liaisons to a number of First Parish groups such as Social Action, Religious Education, Denominational Affairs, and others. As part of our effort to better inform ourselves about the many activities under way at First Parish, Standing Committee members will connect with the leaders of these groups and learn about the major program activities in which parishioners are engaged.

The Standing Committee also began its first-year review of the Finance Committee charter. Led by Treasurer Tom Wilson, this subgroup of the Standing Committee met all of its goals in its first year, gathering input from congregation members on spending priorities, facilitating discussions about the budget, and creating presentation materials for the Annual Meeting. In addition to providing technical assistance to Howard and the Director of Finance and Operations, Fifi Ball, throughout the year, the committee also developed a number of helpful documents that are available on the Finance Committee Web page at <http://www.firstparish.org/cms/committees/finance-committee>. The Finance Committee charter is scheduled to be finalized at our October meeting.

Led by Rev. Howard N. Dana, Social Action Director Bethany Lowe, and First Parish social action leaders, congregational discussions about the social action programs at First Parish have begun! Keep your eye out for future meetings, and join the conversation as we examine where we have been and explore options for the future.

Standing Committee members are always available to talk with First Parish members and friends about issues of interest and concern. Please reach out to any of us, at coffee hour, at an event, or by phone or email, to talk about your First Parish experiences. If you have an account for the First Parish website, you can go to the Standing Committee Web page and view minutes of our meetings, our contact information, meetings schedule, and governance policies. Also, please see our bulletin board display in the downstairs hallway.

RE News

Fall Religious Education Program

Our program is designed for children, youth, and their adult mentors to explore big questions, to celebrate life, to build character, and to grow spiritually. Through hands-on activities, spiritual practices, sharing, and social justice projects, our young people experience how to bring more love and understanding into the world. Regular attendance is strongly encouraged to support community building and a sense of belonging.

Sunday Service

Kindergarten – Grade 7

Kindergarten through Grade 7 begin in the Sanctuary with their families. Following the Message to Children, teachers accompany children to their classrooms. All groups will meet until 11:15 a.m. this year to allow for an hour-long session. Parents of infants to 3rd graders are asked to pick up their children in the classrooms at 11:15 a.m.. Older kids will be dismissed to coffee hour.

Little RE

Teachers: Siobain Mitchell and Jason White

Teaching Assistants: Claire, Olivia, Nuffi, Robert and Hannah

The youngest children are warmly welcomed in our nursery/toddler classrooms on the lower level by parent teachers, our dedicated teen assistants, and Dawn Van Patten, our Assistant Director of RE. Parents are invited to bring their children to the classroom 15 minutes before the worship service begins (by 9:45 a.m.).

Spirit Play

Spirit Play is an engaging approach to religious education based on the Montessori method and UU Principles. Children are told a story and then encouraged to explore “wondering questions” through learning centers and art activities. These stories will draw from our Unitarian Universalist values, principles and history, as well as from science and world religions.

Grade 3 Class Teachers: Kelly McIntosh and Valerie Vallancourt

October 4: My Acts of Goodness

October 11: CHAPEL: All Ages Build a Life-sized Game

October 18: Making Prayer Beads

October 25: Empathy

Our Grades 2 and 3 classes are both using the same resources, based on a UU curriculum called Moral Tales, which through story, activities and games provides children with the spiritual and ethical tools to make choices and take actions based on Unitarian Universalist values.

During the first session, each class wrote a Covenant, or set of promises, for the group, made a web together, and learned about the 7th UU Principle: “respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.” On September 27, the classes explored through a story and related activities how to hear and follow their inner voices, also known as a conscience.

In October, Grades 2 and 3 will begin a project called “Gems of Goodness.” The children will be asked to reflect on and share times when they did something good. Parents and guardians will also be encouraged to notice and affirm actions that are kind, helpful, honest, inclusive, responsible, or just plain good! This is a fun way to learn about and strengthen virtues.

Grades 4 and 5

Windows and Mirrors

Grade 4 Class Teachers: Ayres Stiles-Hall and Michelle Fortier

Grade 5 Class Teachers: Meghan Giannetto and Kristin Haddad

October 4: UU Community

October 11: CHAPEL: All Ages Build a Life-Sized Game

October 18: “We Need Not Think Alike to Love Alike”

October 25: Making Puppets

Our Grade 4 and Grade 5 classes are both using the same resources, based on a UU curriculum called “Windows and Mirrors.” The program teaches that there are always multiple viewpoints and everyone's viewpoint matters.

As a way of exploring this idea further, the two classes will be using puppets for role-playing. We will be using the fabulous curtains in the Bulkeley Room so the two groups can put on puppet shows for each other. By enacting scenarios, the two groups will explore how it is possible for people to see and experience the world differently and treat one another with kindness and respect.

Grades 6 and 7

Neighboring Activists

Fall Teachers: Stuart Johnstone and Amy Rensko

Our Grades 6 and 7 are exploring how they can make a difference in our congregation, locally and globally. In October, they are preparing to participate in the CROP Walk for the Hungry. The 35th Annual Concord Mass. Area CROP Walk for the Hungry will be held on Sunday, October 25, 2015, at First Parish in Concord. To make a donation or participate, check out <http://www.concordcrop.org/cms/>.

Grade 8 – Dramatic Arts

Announcing Katherine Akerley

We are pleased to announce that Katherine Akerley is the drama educator for our Grade 8. Katherine has a B.A. from Suffolk University in English and Theater and is a drama teacher on staff at Wheelock Family Theatre. She writes, “My classes combine all aspects of theater to give the students a sense of ownership and pride in their ability to create a show. I love teaching theater to students and helping to give them the stepping stones to succeed not only as an actor, but as a more aware member of what it means to be an ensemble in our community.” This promises to be a fun way for this group to get to know one another better, and we look forward to their show taking shape.

Reverence for Life

Needs Your Signatures

Do you want to help farm animals by freeing them from extreme confinement cages? Come sign an Initiative Petition. Reverence for Life has a goal of collecting 1,000 signatures before November 16 for the Citizens for the Protection of Farm Animals. With enough signatures, they can put a measure on the statewide November 2016 ballot that would phase out battery cages, gestation crates, and veal crates in Massachusetts. It would also assure that if you purchase meat in Massachusetts, the animal you are eating has not been extremely confined. Petitions will be available every Sunday at coffee hour. For more information, contact Caitlin Selle at selle.caitlin5@gmail.com.

UU Urban Ministry

Volunteer Opportunities

The UU Urban Ministry is looking for Building Ambassadors. These days we are opening our doors more and more to a variety of community groups. Our Roxbury campus seems to always be bustling! We would love to have some volunteers here during the week to greet visitors and help orient them to the building when they are here for meetings or events. If you like meeting new people and have a few hours a week to volunteer, let us know! They are also looking for some volunteer help with data entry. To volunteer, contact Rev. Rebecca Hinds at: rhinds@uum.org or 617-318-6010, x/214.

Partner Congregation News

Our dear friend József Szambotfalvi, minister of our partner congregation in Székeleykeresztúr, Transylvania, has announced his upcoming retirement. His last sermon at his church was September 27, the Transylvanian Thanksgiving. There will be a retirement ceremony for him in early to late October. We will put together and send him a “memory book,” with pages created by members of our congregation who wish to participate. More information will be available in the Sunday News and via FPAnnounce. József and Anna will be moving to a house he has been building on their land in Keresztúr, and we wish them both much happiness in this next phase of their lives.

We are still looking for donors to sponsor scholarships for some incoming freshmen at the Unitarian High School in Keresztúr. Contact Bill Maxwell atwmaxwell5257@gmail.com or 978-369-5257, if you are interested.

Homecoming Picnic

We had a wonderful Homecoming Picnic. More than 100 people enjoyed abundant desserts, our fabulous jazz band, a family-friendly craft project, and most of all, visiting with each other. Thank you to all those who made the evening possible – hosting, sharing their music, providing all the desserts, and doing all the unseen tasks that make it work. And thank you to all who came – for it is always the people who make the party. The ritual of going away for the summer and then coming back together for Homecoming Picnic is as comforting as warm chocolate pudding!

Website Wonder

Five minutes a week, the teacher told me, “take five minutes a week to learn something new on your computer; and by the end of the year, you will be amazed at what you can do.” Really? Okay, what if I did that with the FP website? So, I poked around and look at what I found....

If you're active with the RE program you can sign up for the RE email list and get “important RE announcements, notices, and cancellations” to your Inbox (to cellphone). Follow the breadcrumbs: Home → Religious Education → Programs for Children
