MUUsings

Sabbatical Starting January 2017

**What makes a fire burn
is space between the logs,
a breathing space . . .*

For some time now, when some project or opportunity just beyond the scope of my "real life" has presented itself, I've said, "If I ever get a sabbatical . . ." I've said this with some wistfulness, since this kind of "breathing space" has seemed like a dream. And so I am deeply grateful that, with the support of Howard, the staff and volunteers here at First Parish, I can begin making plans for a three-month sabbatical starting January 2017.

*Too much of a good thing,
too many logs
packed in too tight
can douse the flames
almost as surely as a pail of water would.*

After almost 22 years in music ministry at First Parish, we have collected many logs together. And what a fire we have built! Though there are days when it feels like “too much of a good thing,” I am far from burnt out. Still, I know I would benefit from some space.

*So building fires requires attention
to the spaces in between,
as much as to the wood.*

Sabbatical time will allow space for fresh air to blow into the glowing embers of our music ministry, kindling new energy. Our programs will continue on with the support of music staff, volunteers and guest musicians. Perhaps some new initiatives will catch fire.

*When we are able to build open spaces
in the same way
we have learned
to pile on the logs,
then we can come to see how it is fuel, and absence of the fuel together, that make fire possible.*

I tend to pile on the fuel and over-schedule. I’m hoping to get better at building open space during this sabbatical. Sabbath, or ceasing, is at the root of the word “sabbatical.” Ceasing work and resting will be my first priority. I plan to lay the logs of activity with careful intention.

*We only need to lay a log lightly from time to time.
A fire
grows
simply because the space is there,
with openings
in which the flame
that knows just how it wants to burn can find its way.*

I hope to return on April 1, 2017, fired up with new energy for the next chapter in this music ministry. Thank you so much for this opportunity.

Blessings,
Beth

Dust Off Those Messiah Scores!

Easter Sunday, March 27, at the end of both services, Choir Loft

Easter is coming! Singers from the congregation are invited to come to the choir loft during the final hymn on Easter Sunday, March 27, and join the choir, organ and brass in our traditional Easter postlude, G. F. Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus." If you have a copy of the Messiah, you are welcome to bring it with you. If not, there will be some extra music available, and choir members are always willing to share. We will sing at the end of both the 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. services.

Even if you don't wish to make the climb (or take the elevator) to the balcony, feel free to join in this joyous chorus on Easter morning.

Reflections and RE News

Did you hear the good news? It is the beginning of a new era at First Parish in Concord! As a part of our Annual Pledge Campaign, Religious Education fees will be eliminated next church year. Currently, as a part of our yearly registration, the fee to participate in our RE program is $100 per child for babies through Eighth Grade, or $250 per family. If fees present a financial hardship, assistance has always been available from the Director of Religious Education or the ministers.

Our program for children and youth has charged fees for many years. The initiative to remove them began before my arrival. I am grateful for the leadership of the RE Council, Standing Committee and Rev. Howard N. Dana. Why is this such good news? We are one religious community. Our church serves people of all ages and stages of life. There is no other program or ministry of the church that charges fees for service. This commitment is an expression of our belief in the worth and dignity of all. I believe that this will bring greater health to the congregation as a whole and make our RE program more welcoming to new families.

The theme of the Annual Pledge Campaign is “Sowing Everyday Miracles.” The way our teen assistants take responsibility for our preschoolers in Little RE is an everyday miracle. Our Neighboring Activists delivering buckets of sand to Concord seniors makes the world a brighter place. Our kids acting out the story of the “Children’s Crusade” in worship and reflecting on “Black Lives Matter” fills me with hope. All those little moments, when young people learn a spiritual practice or make a difference or meet an adult who cares, sow seeds for the future.

I encourage you to join me in making a generous pledge to First Parish during Celebration Sunday on March 6. Our gifts of time and money to our congregation are an expression of what we value. Together so much is possible!

Blessings,
Amy

Holden Fund of First Parish

The Holden Fund was established at First Parish in 1901, when Ellen Emerson contributed $3,500 in honor of Nancy Holden for "daughters taking care of mothers in straitened circumstances." Those original instructions have been interpreted more liberally since then to support residents of Concord who require care so they can continue to live in their own homes. Monthly stipends of varying amounts, based upon need, are awarded to help support caregivers (family members or paid professionals).

The Trustees of First Parish have shepherded the fund for over 100 years. They continue to manage the fund but as of July 1, 2016 the Holden Fund Panel, part of our Pastoral Care program, will handle the administration. The panel has broadened eligibility to include members of First Parish no matter the town in which they reside. The Holden Fund Panel reviews applications/extension requests twice a year, in May and October, and reviews emergency applications as needed.

Eligibility criteria are:

1. Financial support is needed to provide for care in the home; no age requirement.
2. Applicant is a resident of Concord or member of First Parish in Concord.

The Holden Fund Panel consists of Rev. Howard N. Dana, Susan Dobbie, Alice Van Deusen, and Rev. Marion Visel. Questions or requests for an application, contact Rev. Marion Visel, Minister for Pastoral Care, mvisel@firstparish.org or 978-369-9602, x414.

Prayer Bead Workshop

Saturday, April 2, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Emerson Room

Led by Sue Dobbie, Dana Snyder-Grant and Rev. Marion Visel, a prayer bead workshop will be held in which we'll learn about different forms of prayer and a practical new approach based on a modern use of prayer beads. This is a practice that you can make your own.

The cost is $10 cash or check to cover supplies for making your own prayer beads.

Sign up with Sue Dobbie (Susandobbie@gmail.com or 978-501-6969) or use the sign-up sheet in the office. The workshop is limited to 15.

Social Action Community

Faith into Action

Now that we've lived with a Black Lives Matter banner on our church for a few months, I've started hearing another round of questions about the Black Lives Matter movement. Who is it? Is it us? What is their platform?

What I hear behind these questions is a desire to form relationships. We want to know that we are part of something bigger, and we want to know who we stand with.

The best way to answer these questions is to go form these relationships, if you can. Black Lives Matter has chapters in Cambridge and Boston. The primary way both chapters communicate is via Facebook. Search "Black Lives Matter" and then the city chapter to follow them and see what you identify with.

Then think about the roots of the Black Lives Matter movement. The phrase “black lives matter” was coined after the not-guilty verdict of George Zimmerman, the Florida man who murdered Trayvon Martin. The phrase came from three black queer women. In other words, the Black Lives Matter movement started because three people who have been oppressed their whole lives because of their race, sexuality and gender commented on a national story that revealed how our country lets itself kill black bodies. The phrase “Black Lives Matter” was revived after Mike Brown was killed in Ferguson, and became a household phrase from then on.

It was not a coincidence that the Black Lives Matter movement was started by three black queer women—these leaders know what oppression looks and feels like. They have felt our culture’s preference for white bodies, for heterosexual bodies, and for male bodies their whole lives. They could comment on oppression in ways that others could not have.

When I say Black Lives Matter, I do not mean that only Black Lives Matter. I mean that black transgender lives matter, and black women matter. I mean that black single mothers matter, and black families matter. Saying “Black Lives Matter” is one way of recognizing that being black impacts the way you interact with the world. It is one way of recognizing the privileges I have as a white person—that the opportunities I have are not the same opportunities as people who are not white.

This is just the tip of the iceberg. If you’d like to learn more, some resources that I’ve found can be helpful are below.

Blessings,
Bethany

New Chair Selection Process

Effective after the First Parish Annual Meeting in June 2016

At our March 13, meeting, the Standing Committee will identify a Standing Committee chair for the 2017 church year. Over the past two months, a group of three Standing Committee members have been interviewing other members, discussing possible candidates, and identifying issues confronting First Parish and the Standing Committee in the coming years. Once a candidate has been identified and approved by the Standing Committee, he or she will begin working together with me to ensure a smooth transition to new leadership. The new chair's term will become effective after the First Parish Annual Meeting in June 2016.

Annual Pledge Campaign

Kickoff on Celebration Sunday, March 6

Parishioners raise 80 percent of the annual budget through pledges. A letter outlining goals for the coming fiscal year (2016/17) was mailed earlier. Among those goals is a commitment to invest in the future by increasing support for young people and families by eliminating religious education fees—the only department for which additional fees are currently charged. (If you need another copy of the letter, please contact the church office.)

We hope you agree that the goals we've outlined in our letter are timely, relevant, and a cause for celebration. The goals will enable First Parish to continue sowing everyday miracles (our theme for this year's campaign) throughout the year ahead. First Parish needs your help; no matter what your level of participation, your pledge makes a big difference.

As we begin planning our next fiscal year, we ask you to consider your pledge and the miracles we can create together. Please join us as we kick off our Annual Pledge Campaign on Celebration Sunday, March 6.

You are welcome to make your pledge:

- During the service March 6
- Online at www.firstparish.org
- By mail
- Ahead of Celebration Sunday, using pledge cards in the church office

Please join us so we can continue to sow everyday miracles.

Suzanne Foley, 2016-2017 Annual Pledge Campaign leader
Tom Wilson, Treasurer

Thanks to the generous donations from members and friends of First Parish in honor of Doug Baker's 35 anniversary, we now have a permanent record of his informative history as a 50-minute video, Musings on Meeting Houses: First Parish in Concord.

This engaging video gives a general history of the five meeting houses that have served First Parish over the past 380 years, depicting their construction and explaining why they were built the way they were. It also recounts many of the traditions, beliefs and legends associated with the congregations who worshiped in them. Thank you to Doug Baker, the History Project Committee, and to all who made this project possible.

The first showing of Doug Baker's video will be at the WPA luncheon on Wednesday, March 16 (details below). Additional evening showings with receptions will be held on April 14 and 24, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., at First Parish. Mark your calendars.
