Social Action

Further Information about UUCSJ and RAICES

The UU College of Social Justice organizes adult and teen immersion trips related to pressing social justice concerns, where learning, witnessing, and spiritual practice are combined. In addition, UUCSJ facilitates connections with RAICES (Refugee and Immigrant Center for Education and Legal Services), a San Antonio non-profit that offers support to asylum seekers and other immigrants. Through the UUCSJ, individuals are grouped to volunteer with RAICES in Texas detention centers for women and children. Lawyers and Spanish - speakers are always needed. (RAICES is also developing connections with volunteers in the Boston area.) If you are interested in volunteering, or in hearing more firsthand, contact Laurie Van Loon or Tony Rodriguez, or go to the UUCSJ website.

Black Lives Matter Items for Sale

Black Lives Matter signs ($10.00) and buttons (50¢ each, 3 for $1.00) are for sale at the Social Action table every Sunday during coffee hour.

Nonprofit Leadership—One Session Remains

We are thrilled to offer members of First Parish the opportunity to learn how to better serve their nonprofits. Jericho Road will be hosting a series of educational sessions for members this fall and winter. Each session has a focused topic, with a goal-setting component as well. The curriculum builds on the previous week's learnings and experiences, which can be applied as necessary, based on an individual's background and skill set. Alternatively, attendees can choose to attend the sessions on a one-off basis. The sessions will be held at First Parish on Saturdays, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Please contact Dan Bush, dbush@jerichoroadproject.org, to register.

Strategic Revenue Generation, on December 3

The final session looks at a variety of ways nonprofits can raise funds, some of the common benefits and risks associated with each method, and a focus on the best method of all. Participants then apply their storytelling skills to make a pitch to a prospective donor.
