Parish Notes

February’s Share the Plate: Sanctuary Boston
Sanctuary Boston is a community of vibrant worship and real connection, grounded in Unitarian Universalism and open to seekers of all kinds. Sanctuary was formed by young adults looking to combine the progressive theology of UUism with worship alive in music and ritual. They are one of the largest UU ministries that caters to the needs of young adults through informal worship, small groups ministry, and other programs. Sanctuary Boston is an experience in contemporary worship, a spiritual home for young seekers, and a model of innovative ministries amplifying the message of UUism. Visit sanctuaryboston.org.

Directories Now Available
The new 2020 Directory is available to pick up after service beginning this Sunday. Copies will also be available in the church office during our normal hours of Tuesday to Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. There is no charge.

Pilgrimage to the National Memorial for Peace and Justice, Museum and Lynching Memorial
Sunday Forum, February 23, at 11:30 a.m., in the Sanctuary
In 2019, First Parish members traveled to Montgomery and Selma, Alabama to see the museum and lynching memorial started by Bryan Stevenson (Just Mercy). We joined 35 others from around Boston organized by Rev. June Cooper of City Mission. We heard from activists in Montgomery and walked the historic Edmund Pettus bridge in Selma. It was life-altering, heart-breaking, and inspiring. Please come and hear our stories: Wendy Holt, Lea Delacour, Cindy Soule, Sue St. Croix, and Ted Bayne, and CC King.

Volunteer Opportunity on the First Parish Sound Team
Are you interested in volunteering at First Parish? Join the Sound Team! We are seeking a Sound Operator to record the Sunday Morning Worship Service on the second Sunday of each month. It is an easy, once-a-month commitment to help us preserve a recorded record of each service. Training and ongoing support will be provided. This is a flexible commitment as the Sound Team trade Sundays among themselves to fit it into their schedules. For more information, contact Keith Wortman, wortman2@verizon.net, 978-392-9226 (email preferred).
Upcoming Workshop: Capturing Memories on Paper
March 18 and 25; April 1, 8, 15, and 22; 1:00 to 2:30 p.m., Emerson Room
Connecting with the future, giving our descendants an impression of our lives, is one good reason to capture memories on paper. Even more important is the personal pleasure and insight that come from reconstructing parts of our lives in words. This 6-week workshop will invite participants to write their memories as short reflections in response to concrete prompts and then share their writing with the group if they choose. Register by sign-up sheet in office, or by email at virginiarosstaylor@gmail.com or lweber@firstparish.org. Facilitated by Virginia Taylor, former English professor and currently a private writing coach. Maximum of 10 participants.

Social Action
The Huddle is Here!
On Sunday, February 23, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m., at the Harvey Wheeler Center in West Concord, the Immigration Justice Taskforce will again join Concord Indivisible for a letter and postcard writing Huddle on critical issues. For example, over 400,000 immigrants have Temporary Protective Status, many of which have families and businesses and have lived here for decades, live in great uncertainty because they have no pathway to permanent residency. These neighbors need our help. Please hold the date and plan to join us! Materials, snacks, conversation and community are all provided. Any questions please talk to an IJTF member, Jane Blumberg, Gail Kharidia or Tony Rodriguez.

SAC Grants
Now is the time for First Parishioners to recommend organizations as recipients of next year’s Share the Plate. You are encouraged to nominate a nonprofit group committed to social justice that would benefit from a donation from First Parish. Now through March 1, the SAC Giving Team is accepting requests for the 2020-2021 church year. The easy-to-complete Nomination Form is available online at surveygizmo.com/r/FPCSACForm. Please check out the SAC Grant page on the First Parish website for more information. Need more information, please contact Ted Bayne (tedbayne@comcast.net), Liz Rust (liz@therusts.net), or Chris Miara (chrismiara@gmail.com).

IJTF Monthly Meeting
You are invited to the Immigration Justice Taskforce Monthly Meeting on Monday, March 2, 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in the Brooks Room. This is a can-do group of committed folks. Come see for yourself! You won’t be disappointed. For more information, talk to an IJTF member—Carl Proper, Joyce Proper, Rachel Wheeler or Ted Bayne.

Take Your Children to Vote
Super Tuesday on March 3 is an opportunity for First Parish adults to teach children about voting our UU values. The national UU the Vote campaign encourages parents to talk about why elections matter and take their children to vote. Younger children grades K-4 will have a special election activity during RE on Sunday, March 1.

AWE Free First Friday Feminist Film Series
Friday, March 6, 7:00 p.m., in the Chapel
AWE (Advocates for Women’s Empowerment) will be featuring “Frida” for the First Friday Film in March. “Frida” is a 2002 American biographical drama directed by Julie Taymor. It depicts the bold and controversial life of artist Frida Kahlo and is set in Mexico City. Her forward-thinking artistic, political, and sexual attitudes are explored as we witness a hard-drinking, passionate woman of the early 1900s. This film earned an Oscar nomination for Salma Hayek. Contact Lou Toussaint (mltotoussaint@gmail.com).

More Huddles are Coming!
You’ll want to hold these dates for more Huddles: March 8 and 22, and April 5 and 19. All Huddles are held at the Harvey Wheeler Center from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. For more information, please talk to an Immigration Justice Taskforce member, Janet Donovan, Laurie van Loon or Regina Corrao.

Additional Sanctuary Volunteers Needed!
The UU church in Bedford has been home for the past two years to a person many of us have come to know and care for; separated from her children she remains there month after month. Almost a dozen area congregations provide volunteers who offer 24/7 presence to this Sanctuary guest through three/four-hour shifts of their choice. One volunteer recently said of her shift, “I love having a block of time to read, write, get organized and catch up on email.” The Immigration Justice Taskforce is actively recruiting new helpers. If a few quiet hours, and helping our neighbor, sound good to you, please contact Abby Bhule, abhule66@gmail.com.

Religious Exploration
This Sunday, February 23: MultiRe Program
9:45 a.m. Little RE (0-4 yrs) – Lower Level
10:15-11:15 a.m. Praying in Color (K-8) – Emerson Room
4:00-6:00 p.m. 8th Grade OWL – Emerson Room
6:00-8:00 p.m. Youth Group – Wright Tavern

Next Sunday, March 1: Religious Exploration
Wonders of Water, MultiRe Workshop (K-8)
Sunday, February 23, 10:15 to 11:15 am, Emerson Room
The Umbrella Arts Center has issued an Earth Month Call for Art. This year’s theme is “Fresh Water and Our Watershed” and the exhibit will be displayed at the Umbrella in April. This Sunday, we will explore with Dawn Van Patten the wonder and power of water in all its forms and use paint, beads, fabric, and other materials to reflect on the aspects of water that speak to us as we begin our collaborative artwork for the exhibit.

Family Game Night
Friday, March 13, 6:00 p.m., Parish Hall
All are welcome to a Potluck Dinner and Game Night! This will be an opportunity for kids and adults to get to know one another beyond Sunday morning at First Parish in Concord. Please bring a dish to share and your favorite game(s) to play. As a part of our Green Sanctuary efforts, you may also wish to bring a table setting (plates and utensils) for your family. Questions? Contact Amy at afreedman@firstparish.org.
