

First Parish in Concord (MA), Unitarian Universalist
Social action manager job opening announcement
June 2019

Position Overview: Social Action Manager

First Parish in Concord, Massachusetts (FPC), Unitarian Universalist, is accepting applications for the position of social action manager. FPC is a large UU church with an active social action program and engagement across multiple social justice issues including racism and white privilege, immigration, women's rights, climate change, and reclaiming our democracy.

The social action manager will provide professional, inspired leadership and oversight of social action at FPC. We seek a candidate who will work with our social action council to actively engage our congregation in social justice efforts, both within our church and in the wider community. The successful candidate will possess strong team leadership and facilitation skills as well as a demonstrated commitment to social justice, and will enjoy collaborating with professional staff, an active advisory council, and large congregation. Affiliation or familiarity with Unitarian Universalism is preferred.

Salary range of $48,250 to $53,250 is based on a ten-month, mid-August through mid-June, 40 hour/week position, with benefits. FPC welcomes diversity in its members and its staff.

For a full job description and more information about social action programs at FPC, please visit the church website at <https://firstparish.org/wp/justice/social-action/>. Applicants who do not meet all the qualifications but who are excited by this job are encouraged to apply.

Resumes/applications are being accepted through August 15, 2019, with an anticipated start date by October 1, 2019. To apply, please email your resume to SAMsearch@firstparish.org or mail to: SAM Search Team, First Parish in Concord, 20 Lexington Road, Concord, MA 01742.
