Pastoral Care

First Parish in Concord

Pastoral Care

Supports people through crises, transitions and difficult situations

Listens compassionately and helps individuals sort out what can and cannot be changed

Is present with people in their pain, loss, struggle, anxiety, and joy

Relates gently to individuals as whole people

Offers encouragement and comfort in times of trouble

Is available to everyone at any stage of life

Seek pastoral care

During crises and transitions such as divorce, health issues, retirement, death of someone close to you, marriage, family concerns, mid-life crises, coming to terms with sexual identity, losing a job, making a career change or financial distress

You need to talk confidentially with a compassionate listener, even if you are not sure what is bothering you

You are facing a major life decision

You are grieving or hurting and need emotional and spiritual support

Pastoral Care Process

1. A First Parish member or friend contacts a minister or lay minister to express his or her concerns.
2. The minister or lay minister talks with the member to better understand his or her needs.
3. Together, the member and the minister or lay minister decides what type of support or referral would be helpful, and initiate support.
4. The minister or lay minister follows-up with the member to see if the pastoral care support has been beneficial and whether further support is needed.
