September	John Cratsley	Outdoor Church is an ecumenical Christian church for homeless and street involved men and women in Cambridge, MA." The Outdoor Church (TOC) ministers to the unhoused in the Central, Harvard and Porter Squares areas. It holds a Sunday morning outdoor worship service in Porter Square and delivers food, clothing, and other necessities on the streets on Sundays, Saturdays and Thursdays.
October	Susan See	Worthy Now Prison Outreach - CLF Prison Ministry
November	Regina Corerro	Sanctuary Boston-Area Campus Ministry UU Students in Boston have been investing their time, talent, and energy to form what we believe is the largest campus ministry program in Unitarian Universalism. We hope that the UU congregations of the Boston area will match their energy, by coming together to fund this ministry into the future.
December	Liz Rust	Concord Prison Outreach
January	Laurie Van Loon/IJTF	Massachusetts Afghan Alliance : a model for how to support arriving/settling Afghan families. The founder is an Afghan veteran living in our area.
February	Patty Keane	South Sudanese Enrichment for Families
March	Dian Pekin /WPA	Massachusetts Women's History Center - Designed to be a continuing center highlighting women's accomplishments working for women's voting rights and all women's and others' rights for equality and equity and diversity and inclusion and provide education and encouragement to current people to continue working for such rights and opportunities

April	Carol Hani	The Nature Connection is a 40 year old non-profit based in Concord, MA that brings the healing power and wonder of nature to people who may have limited access. We share animals and plants at after school programs, nursing homes and day programs for people living with various abilities. We believe in the power of nature to bring peace and health.
May	Rebecca Winborn	The mission of DeeDee's Cry, a fledgling organization based in Roxbury, is to provide resources on suicide prevention, to support family members in the aftermath of a suicide and mental health education. Their aim is to create a space where conversations begin to lift the stigma on suicide and mental health within the BIPOC communities through collaboration with organizations and agencies to create events, facilitate groups and provide support to suicide loss survivors for family and friends. UU Urban Ministry is partnering with DeeDee's Cry and has reached out to the UUUM community to help build a circle of support that can assist with some their identified engagement opportunities.
June	Suzie Weaver/The Diversity Team	GLASS provides a continuum of services to LGBTQ+ youth of color and their allies in the Greater Boston area. As a leader in LGBTQ+ youth services, we also provide education and consultation to other providers and community organizations.
