Easter Egg Hunt

Sunday, April 9, 11 a.m. in person

Happy Easter! Following our Easter Service, we will have an Egg Hunt on the grounds of First Parish. Please meet on the Terrace. All are welcome to join the fun!

Diversity Committee Meeting

Tuesday, April 11, 7:30 p.m.

Zoom only

Are you interested in working on issues of social justice for the LGBTQ and other marginalized communities? Would you like to help make First Parish truly welcoming for everyone? You're invited to the next Diversity Committee meeting; there's no requirement to join the committee to attend. Considering the horrifying anti-Transgender laws being passed in many states, and other regressive laws attacking basic freedoms, there is much work to be done. All are welcome, including youths. Please contact Sara Ballard for the Zoom link or with any questions.

RE Program: Spring Yoga

Sunday, April 16, 10 a.m.

In person, Parish Hall

We are delighted to welcome back Tara Rachel Jones to offer a special yoga session designed especially for children in 1st to 5th grades. We will have yoga mats available for everyone. Preschoolers are welcome to join in at their own pace or play nearby in the Parlor. Caregivers are asked to sign-in their children before the service in the Parish Hall.

Our session will be inspired by an old Nature Tale: "The Hare" based in the symbolism of how things are hatching, growing and becoming as the earth reawakens in the springtime. Tara Rachel Jones is a trained yoga instructor and educator.

Welcome Class

Sundays, April 16, 23, May 7, 11 a.m.

In person

Are you curious about life at First Parish? Are you interested in getting more involved and learning about Unitarian Universalism? If you are, then the Welcome Class is for you! This three part series offers a place to learn about First Parish and Unitarian Universalism, explore your personal spirituality, and connect with others in the congregation.

Contact Susan See for information. Food and child care will be provided.

Pledging Deadline is April 16, 2023

We need your pledge—your promise—before the deadline of April 16, 2023 to ensure it is included in our budgeting process. Pledges are over 60% of our annual income so knowing what we will have is essential in developing our budget. Each year we do a Pledge Campaign in March and then begin budgeting in April. We review priorities in May and vote on the final budget in June at our Annual Meeting. Please pledge today if you haven't already.

If you have any questions, please contact 2023-24 Pledge Campaign Project Manager Alane Wallis.

Concord Prison Outreach: Interfaith Event Sunday, May 7, 3 p.m.

All three world religions invoke compassion for those imprisoned as necessary for healing the world and dwelling on the side of compassion. We are uniquely positioned to serve these incarcerated populations through our two prisons.

Concord Prison Outreach helps address needs of the incarcerated through its programs and support.

First Parish is hosting CPO in an inter-faith gathering at First Parish in Concord, 3-4:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 7, 2023. Together we can make a significant difference for these men and their families, and help us better fulfill our prison ministries.
