Earth Defenders Banner at Church Entrance

Be sure to check out the Earth Defenders Banner at the Church Entrance. It lists names of environmental and climate advocates who gave their lives in 2021 for protecting their communities' natural resources. The people were identified by Global Witness, an international organization.

The banner is on loan to us from Brookline First Parish UU through the month of June. For more information, contact Gail Kharidia of the Environmental Team.

Coffee and Conversation with AWE Saturday, June 3, 8:30 a.m.

In person at Nashoba Baker, West Concord

Join the Advocates for Women's Empowerment (AWE) to catch up with each other over coffee. Purchase your own coffee and food and look for us in the couch area (we hope we can grab that comfy space!). People of all genders, gender identities, and expressions are welcome! Contact Suzie Weaver.

Conversation with AWE Thursday, June 8, 7:00 p.m.

In person, First Parish Terrace

Join the Advocates for Women's Empowerment (AWE) to catch up with each other and chat about future initiatives! Feel free to bring munchies or drinks to share. People of all genders, gender identities, and expressions are welcome! Contact Suzie Weaver.

A Celebration of Pride!

Saturday, June 10, 10:00 a.m.

In person at Arlington Street Church, Boston

All are invited to join Diversity Committee members to attend the pre-parade Pride service and celebration at the Arlington Street Church in Boston (20 Arlington Street), featuring a live band and a surprise! Following the service, you may march in the Pride Parade and head to the festival together. Show your support for the LGBTQ community and have fun at the same time! Contact Sara Ballard with any questions.
